BLIND TIGER OPERATOR DIES FROM SHOT WOUND

Man Caught At King's Mountain
Dies In Jail Here Thursday
After Loss of Arm

Alone and friendless in the squad office of a country jail, with no farewell kiss of a loved wife and children upon his brow, and ministered unto only by the kind-hearted jailer and wife, Lawrence Judd, a member of a prominent Woodford county family, died in Stanford Thursday morning. Blood poisoning, resulting from a gun shot wound in his right arm, received while fleeing before a posse of men near King's Mountain last week, was the cause of his death. In the hope of saving his life, physicians had amputated the arm on Wednesday morning, but the poison had penetrated too deeply into his system, to check its virulent influence. He rallied for some time after the operation had been skillfully performed by Drs. W. B. O'Bannon and J. G. Carpenter upon an improvised operating table in the jail office. But the effect of the poison in his system began to be manifested that night and he gradually sank unto the end Thursday.

Shortly after the operation, Judge called Dr. O'Bannon aside and told him that his name was not J. W. Clark, which he had given to the authorities when shot and captured at King's Mountain for selling whiskey unlawfully. He said he had given an assumed name so that his family in Versailles might not know of his trouble. He said that he had a wife and child living there, but only in case of his death were they to be notified. If he lived, he said, he would be able to take care of himself. He said that Dr. Sublett, of Versailles, a prominent practitioner there, was his brother-in-law, and could be notified if anything happened.

The scene just before he lost consciousness under the influence of chloroform for operation, was indeed a pathetic one. Wan and emaciated from suffering, the man yet went gamely to the table, from which he might never arise. Just before he lost consciousness, he turned to Dr. Carpenter, and in a clear voice, said: "When the roll is called up Yonder, we'll all be there, won't we, doc?"

And then he went to sleep, the injured member was removed, and he has gone up Yonder to answer when his name is called in the great and final roll call.

Judd was a man about 45 years of age, who appeared in Lincoln county a short time ago, and began selling whiskey illicitly at King's Mountain. As told before, Squire Singleton obtained positive proof of what he was doing, and then Deputy Sheriff T. S. Reynolds summoned a posse of men to arrest him. The officers are said to have encountered some obstacles in endeavoring to get into the place where Judd was operating, and while they were outside, he escaped out a rear way and attempted to get away. One of the members of the posse, who is said to be quite a young man, fired on him with his shotgun and the man dropped with the lead in his right arm. Just before he died he told the doctor that he was running with his back toward the men when he was shot, but it is understood that this is denied by those who were present. It is probable that a full investigation of the whole affair will be made. Coroner George P. Bright decided not to hold an inquest, saying it was a case more for the grand jury than for the coroner.

Dr. O'Bannon telephoned to Versailles to the man's relatives, and they are expected to come after the body.

The I. J. carries more farm and sale advertising than any other country paper in Kentucky. There's a reason.

MRS. WARD MOORE DIES AT CRAB ORCHARD.

Typhoid Fever Takes Mother of Happy Family Soon After Her Young Daughter

The heavy hand of affliction has been laid upon the family of Mr. Ward Moore, one of the best-known citizens of Crab Orchard. After taking his bright little eight-year-old daughter last week, the Death Angel swooped down upon the household again this week, and this time reaped the wife and mother and the cup of bitterness which has been pressed to the lips of the husband and father is filled to overflowing. The hearts of a host of friends and loved ones go out to him and his remaining little brood in this, their deepest hour of affliction, and many a prayer is wafted heavenward that he may find strength on High to aid him at this time of dire distress.

Like her little daughter, Mrs. Moore was a victim of the dread typhoid fever. Altogether six members of the family have been afflicted with this disease within the past few months. Two of the children are now convalescent at the home. Mrs. Moore had been ill but a comparatively short time, and passed away at six o'clock Wednesday morning. The funeral services were conducted at the Crab Orchard cemetery Thursday afternoon by Mr. J. C. McClary of this city. Before her marriage to Mr. Moore, Mrs. Moore was a Shively, and everyone who knew her, admired her sweet Christian character. She was a model wife and mother and her loss is truly a great one to her family. She was a faithful member of the Christian church.

M. J. McCormack is in Lexington this week.

HUBBARD'S PROMISES

Are Not Fooling People In Race For The Legislature.

Much interest is being manifested in the representative's race, since Ed. Hubbard announced as a candidate against Will Shanks and opposition to him has put the democratic leaders to work with a vengeance. "Elder" Hubbard is making a personal canvass over the county speaking at different points, but his record is so well known that it is not believed he will be able to fool enough people before election time, to make a showing against Shanks, who will undoubtedly be elected. The fact that Hubbard is making his campaign on such planks as advocating $1 a day for work on the county roads, which he could not possibly obtain, if elected, shows the extremity to which he is going after votes. Other planks in his platform are equally as meaningless, and are only being advocated in an effort to catch those whom he thinks do not know any better.

SPLENDID ATTRACTION COMES TO OPERA HOUSE ON NOV. 10.

popular prices have been made for the evening, 25 and 35 cents with 50 cents for reserved seats. A special rate of $1.50 for the remaining four attractions of the Lyceum season has been made by the local club. One of the very best shows ever seen here will be that of Reno, the Magician, who comes on November 24th, soon after the Mendelssohn Quartet.

Democratic leaders are confident that no friend of McCreary, will be led off by the glittering promises Hubbard is making for a vote against him is a vote for McCreary and no voter should take a chance on scratching the ticket.

GOOD PRICES REIGN AT WOODS' DISSOLUTION SALE.

High Class Offerings In Demand
And Bidding Is Brisk—List of The Sales.

One of the best sales held here this season was the dissolution sale of the partnership between E. P. Woods and his son, J. H. Woods, which was held at the handsome farm of the former on the Shelby City pike on Wednesday. A big crowd was present, all enjoyed the fine burgoo dinner set by J. C. Lynn and there was a good demand for the stuff offered. The Messrs. Woods had accumulated a fine bunch of mules, brood mares and horses and when it was announced that they would sell out their partnership stuff it was a foregone conclusion that there would be a hearty demand for their offerings. Col. I. M. Dunn, of Danville cried the sale and kept things moving at all times. The list of sales during the day was as follows:

TO PLAY FOR FOOT BALL CHAMPIONSHIP OF STATE

Stanford High School Team Goes to Lexington on Nov. 11 to Meet
Strong Eleven There.

The Stanford High School football team plays the Lexington High School football team at Lexington on Saturday, November 11th for the high school championship of the state.

Arrangements were concluded for this game late this week, after the local eleven had smothered the team of the Central University freshmen by a score of 35 to 0 here Tuesday afternoon. Lexington had defeated the Louisville High School and the championship lies between Stanford and Lexington, for the local lads have clearly outclassed everything in this territory.

Undoubtedly a big bunch of local rooters will go over for the game at Lexington to cheer for the local lads on the victory. They will put in much hard work between this time and the date of the big game, and will be in the pink of condition by that time. The boys go to Danville Saturday for a game against the school for the Deaf eleven but it is the latter show no better form than they did in the game here last week, much of the hard work for Stanford will be done by the substitutes, and the regulars saved for the championship game.

The game against the C. U. Freshmen here last Tuesday was a nice one, and Stanford played at top speed. Many of the visiting eleven were subs on the regular C. U. Varsity team, so that the showing the local lads made against them was very fine. Mike Penny was back in the game, at his old position behind the line, and his plunging was a feature of the game. He scored three of the locals' touchdowns. He will be a mighty hard man to stop in the Lexington game. Tom and Harry Coleman, and Wesley Embury also showed up splendidly, and with Will McCarty back in the line, it was greatly strengthened. The local lads have about the best football team this season they have ever put in the field and their local admirers are looking for them to bring the championship back from Lexington.

RELIC OF DARK AGES

Is Danville Workhouse, Says Gov.
Willson in Terhune Case

Gov. Willson gave the city of Danville a severe arraignment in discussing the condition of its city workhouse, in connection with the case of Kyle Terhune, of that city, who was sentenced to serve a term in the town bastille. The governor refused to grant a pardon to Terhune and condemns the city for permitting the continuance of such a place. He declares the workhouse is a relic of the dark ages and unfit for human habitation. Terhune, a young man of good family, was convicted of malicious shooting, having fired a bullet into the leg of a negro. He was sentenced to 12 months in the workhouse, but was later convicted of robbery and that case is now pending.

GREAT CAMPAIGN OFFER.

Arrangements have been completed whereby we are enabled to offer the daily Courier-Journal until December 30, 1911 and THE INTERIOR JOURNAL one full year for only $1.80. The regular price of the Courier Journal is 50 cents a month. This is a remarkable offer, and the sooner you send in your order the longer you will get the Courier Journal. The political campaign is on, keep posted by reading the I. J. All orders must be sent to the Interior Journal not to the Courier Journal.

Twenty thousand people read each issue of the Interior Journal.

THREE MUNICIPAL RACES ON NEXT TUESDAY

City Council Tickets to be Elected
In Stanford, Hustonville and Crab Orchard

In addition to the regular election of state officers which takes place next Tuesday, there are three municipal elections in three of the incorporated towns in Lincoln county which are creating considerable interest in the communities affected. In all three towns the races are for city councilmen with questions of more or less importance to the communities involved.

The Councilmanic fight in this city is well known to all citizens as well as the issues involved. A number of the present councilmen are running for re-election, backed by the present city administration, and are running as the Citizens' Ticket. One change has been made to the list of names, since it was first published some weeks ago, Jas. McFee having been sidetracked by the leaders in favor of A. T. Nunnelle. The Citizens' ticket will thus go on the ballot with the following men as candidates for the office of councilmen: M. D. Elmore, A. T. Nunnelle, E. T. Pence, Jr., J. R. Powell, B. F. Rout and C. C. Gooch.

Opposing them are a number of well known citizens who are running as the Law and Order ticket, and are promising a more rigid enforcement of the laws of the city, if they are elected councilmen. They say they are determined to clean up the blind tigers and to make Stanford a law abiding city in every particular, if elected. The Law and Order ticket will undoubtedly receive a big majority of the white vote in Stanford, the question of the election hanging upon whether there are enough colored voters who approve their stand and their platform to vote for them and put them over. The candidates on the Law and Order ticket are Dr. W. B. O'Bannon, J. C. McClary, John S. Baughman, Embury Beazley, J. A. Allen and R. C. Arnold.

There are two tickets for city councilmen in Hustonville also, one known as the Law and Order ticket and the other as the People's ticket. W. H. Lair is a candidate on the Law and Order ticket for Police Judge and George Bradley for City Marshal, neither having opposition on the other ticket, though Robert Ashley is running independently for City Marshal. The candidates for the Board of Trustees of Hustonville on the Law and Order ticket are G. C. Riffe, John B. Riffe, E. B. Powell, S. G. McKinney and Mack Peavyhouse.

The candidates for Trustees of Hustonville on the People's ticket are D. J. Newbern, A. M. Frye, Howard Cannitz, J. G. Weatherford and C. R. McCormack.

In Crab Orchard there is a People's ticket and a Citizens' ticket. The candidates for Board of Trustees on the former are Col. James Guest, G. B. Lyne, D. K. Farris, W. E. Perkins and George B. Harris.

The candidates for Trustees on the Citizens' ticket are Dr. W. W. Bargin, R. L. Collier, H. D. Campbell, J. S. Duke and Horace Kinwell.

Ed. Hubbard can't get a $1 a day for workers on the county roads, not if he went to the legislature for a thousand years. His advocacy that in his platform is simply an effort to fool and catch a few voters. The fiscal court of Lincoln county is the only power that can pay men for working the county roads. The fiscal court is composed of three republicans and one democrat, and the republicans can pay workers on the county roads $1 a day or $2 a day if they wish. Let "Elder" Hubbard do some work with them instead of trying to fool the people into believing that he can get them pay for work on the roads by being elected to the legislature.

Queer Cure for Consumption.

Some of the English papers announce the accidental discovery of what appeared to be a cure for consumption by means of the ammoniated gases generated in the production of maggots for fish bait in an establishment near Bradford. The United States consul at Bradford, in a report to Washington, says: "While engaged in this work, it is said certain persons known to be suffering from tuberculosis have regained their health."

A HEALTHY, HAPPY OLD AGE

May be promoted by those who gently cleanse the system, now and then, when in need of a laxative remedy, by taking a desertspoonful of the ever refreshing, wholesome and truly beneficial Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna, which is the only family laxative generally approved by the most eminent physicians, because it acts in a natural, strengthening way and warms and tones up the internal organs without weakening them. It is equally beneficial for the very young and the middle aged, as it is always efficient and free from all harmful ingredients. To get its beneficial effects it is always necessary to buy the genuine, bearing the name of the Company—California Fig Syrup Co.—plainly printed on the front of every package.

An Innovation in Oil Heaters

The Perfection Smokeless Oil Heater, with its drums enameled in turquoise, is an ornament to any room, whether in the country or city home.

No home is quite complete without a Perfection Oil Heater. It is a necessity in the fall and spring, when it is too warm to start the regular heating apparatus, and too cool to be without heat. In the midst of winter it is often convenient as an auxiliary heater, as there are always some cold corners in a house.

The enameled heater always presents a nice appearance, as the enamel will not tarnish or burn off. It is not an "enameled paint," but it is the same as the enamel of your cooking utensils.

The Perfection is the most reliable and convenient portable heating device you can find. An automatically-locking flame spreader prevents turning the wick high enough to smoke.

CHICAGO MERCHANT MAKES STATEMENT.

After Spending Thousands of Dollars and Consulting the Most Eminent Physicians, He Was Desperate.

CHICAGO, ILLS.—Mr. J. G. Becker, of 134 Van Buren St., a well-known wholesale dry goods dealer, states as follows: "I have had catarrh for more than thirty years. Have tried everything on earth and spent thousands of dollars for other medicines and with physicians, without getting any lasting relief, and can say to you that I have found Peruna the only remedy that has cured me permanently."

"Peruna has also cured my wife of catarrh. She always keeps it in the house for an attack of cold, which it invariably cures in a very short time."

HUFFMAN FARM

Sold to T. W. Hutcheson Through Local Real Estate Firm.

Hughes and McCarty, the local real estate men sold to T. W. Hutcheson for Robert Thompson, of Garrard, the nice little farm, known as the Huffman farm, about half a mile from Stanford on the Crab Orchard pike. This is one of the nicest little places around here, has a splendid house on it and good land. Mr. Hutcheson recently returned from Arizona, and says that Kentucky has all the western states "beaten to death". There are 55 acres of land in the farm, he bought around $6,000.

RASPBERRY CROP

Gathered By Chas. T. Willson On His Farm November 1.

California and Florida are not the only states which produce fruits in the winter time. Kentucky has recently joined the procession. Various newspaper reports have recently been seen of apple trees in bloom while the summer crop had not been gathered, and other such unusual horticultural freaks, but Lincoln county has an exhibit that is going to be hard to equal and that is a delicious crop of raspberries harvested on November 1st. That is what Charles T. Willson did on his cozy little farm out on Rural Route No. 3, south of town, and to prove it, he brought a box of nice fresh raspberries in to the I. J. office and any doubting Thomas can come in and see them for himself. Mr. Willson says "The crop is not a heavy one but shows that the knobs can do on the fruit question."

MILD, GENTLE LAXATIVE FOR WOMEN GIVEN FREE

So many of the ills of women are due to habitual constipation, probably because of their false modesty on the subject that their attention cannot be too strongly called to the importance of keeping the bowels open. It is always important to do that, regardless of the sex, but it is especially important in women. From the time the girl begins to menstruate until menopause ceases she has always vastly better prospects of coming through healthy if she watches her bowel movements. If you find yourself constipated, with bad breath, pimply complexion, headaches, belching gas and other symptoms of indigestion and constipation, take a small dose of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It is a woman's favorite laxative. You will find that you can do away with salts, strong cathartics, etc., which are entirely unsuited to woman's requirements. Mrs. Katherine Haberstroh of McKees Rocks, Pa., and Mrs. A. E. Herrick of Wheeler, Mich., who was almost paralyzed in her stomach and bowels, are now cured by the use of this remedy. A free sample bottle can be obtained by addressing Dr. Caldwell, and after you are convinced of its merits buy it of your druggist at fifty cents and one dollar a bottle. Dr. Caldwell does not feel that the purchase of his remedy ends his obligation. He has specialized in stomach, liver and bowel diseases for over forty years and will be pleased to give the reader any advice on the subject free of charge. All are welcome to write him. Whether for the medical advice or the free sample address him Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 602 Caldwell building, Monticello, Ill.
